CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Germania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co.'s of New York:

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, ALL claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and straightforward, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We conceive that no stronger test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and undiminished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so justly entitled you, and remain,

THE WAY HUNGARY MANAGES MATRIMONIAL AFFAIRS.

An enterprise called "Society for Dowers and Trousseau' for Newly Married People," has of late come to exceeding grief in the town of Borsad-Niskolez, Hungary. The society was established by a parson, a bankrupt and lawyer without clients and was entirely on the mutual benefit order. According to the rules, anybody could become a member and at his or her marriage would receive double the sum subscribed. The statutes of the society were approved by the Hungarian minister. The success of the enterprise was immense, and the marriage furore spread throughout the country. Blind men and hunchbacks, the lame, the bandy-legged—all looked about for wives in order to join the society and receive the offered premium. The heads of households—masters and mistresses—married off their servants, and shared the premium with the newly married couples. The society did an extensive business, and branch offices were established in all the principal cities of Hungary. There were no fewer than 105,000 names upon the list of membership, and the immense sum of 10,000 florins had been subscribed. This bold speculation finally met the fate of all similar enterprises. The society became bankrupt, throwing more pecuniary trouble among many of the subscribers; and its conductors, who had enriched themselves in so scandalous a manner, were with difficulty rescued, when the announcement of bankruptcy was made public, from the fury of the poor people whose savings had been placed in their hands, and of whom many are reduced to want.

THE WEAR OF THE BRAIN.

The notion that those who work only with their brains need less food than those who labor with their hands, has been the cause of untold mischief. Students and literary men have often been the victims of slow starvation from their ignorance of the fact that mental labor causes greater waste of tissue than muscular. According to careful estimates, three hours of hard study wear out the body more than a whole day at the anvil or on a farm. "Without phosphorus, no thought," is a German saying; and the consumption of that essential ingredient of the brain increases in proportion to the amount of labor which the organ is required to perform. This wear and tear of the brain are easily measured by careful examination of the salts in the liquid excretions. The importance of the brain as a working organ is shown by the amount of blood it receives which is proportionately greater than that of any other part of the body. One-fifth of the blood goes to the brain, though its average weight is only one-fortieth of the weight of the body. This fact alone would be sufficient to prove that brain workers need more food and better food than mechanics and farm laborers.—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

THE Springfield Republican gives a very fair review of the evidence on both sides of the Livingstone-Stanley question, and decides thereon that Stanley has accomplished what he claims to have accomplished. It then makes a pertinent suggestion that there should be an immediate and complete exploration of Africa by the combined resources of Christian governments." "There is," it says, "no longer reason why we should not chase the mountains of the moon into their last hiding place and know where the Nile comes from. The money spent in exploring the barren arctic regions would have put a locomotive into Ujiji before this time. Christianity, commerce, self-interest and science all demand that the African sphinx be forced to give up its secret. Before another decade passes, inner Africa must be opened up and prospected, and mapped in all the primary geographies so that even Dr. Livingstone's grandson could not lose himself there; and before the century is out, railroads, telegraphs, newspapers and churches must be planted in the inner courts of her mysteries and the sealed lips and chained hands of her people be added to the worshipping and working forces of civilization.

A GEORGIA pper tells a good story of one of the candidates for County Sheriff in that State. The candidate, a physician, lately stopped to talk with a man who, with his two daughters, was pulling fodder, and the doctor, in order to keep alongside of him, commenced pulling fodder in the row he was walking in. When he had fairly got settled down to it, the farmer says: "Excuse me a minute while I step over to the house—you just knock along with the girls here,' and he left. At this the girls made the fodder fly, going down the rows in double quick time. The doctor manfully went in, hand over hand, shucked his coat and did his level best. He panted, he sweated, and yet he shoved along under the broiling sun while the farmer was in his piazza with his pipe lit, taking it cool, laughing in his sleeve. In about an hour he went out to the field and released the doctor. They say the doctor never hinted "sheriff" to him, but jerked up his coat and left; and now he don't go in fodder fields for votes—he dodges 'em.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty provail throughout the land.—Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the paryt's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individuals's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization-

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustious services of Ulyssess S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Billous, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Germania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co.'s of New York:

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, ALL claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and straightforward, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We conceive that no stronger test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and undiminished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so justly entitled you, and remain,

THE WAY HUNGARY MANAGES MATRIMONIAL AFFAIRS.

An enterprise called "Society for Dowers and Trousseau for Newly Married People," has of late come to exceeding grief in the town of Borsad-Niskolez, Hungary. The society was established by a parson, a bankrupt and lawyer without clients and was entirely on the mutual benefit order. According to the rules, anybody could become a member and at his or her marriage would receive double the sum subscribed. The statutes of the society were approved by the Hungarian minister. The success of the enterprise was immense, and the marriage furore spread throughout the country. Blind men and hunchbacks, the lame, the bandy-legged—all looked about for wives in order to join the society and receive the offered premium. The heads of households—masters and mistresses—married off their servants, and shared the premium with the newly married couples. The society did an extensive business, and branch offices were established in all the principal cities of Hungary. There were no fewer than 105,000 names upon the list of membership, and the immense sum of 10,000 florins had been subscribed. This bold speculation finally met the fate of all similar enterprises. The society became bankrupt, throwing more pecuniary trouble among many of the subscribers; and its conductors, who had enriched themselves in so scandalous a manner, were with difficulty rescued, when the announcement of bankruptcy was made public, from the fury of the poor people whose savings had been placed in their hands, and of whom many are reduced to want.

THE WEAR OF THE BRAIN.

The notion that those who work only with their brains need less food than those who labor with their hands, has been the cause of untold mischief. Students and literary men have often been the victims of slow starvation from their ignorance of the fact that mental labor causes greater waste of tissue than muscular. According to careful estimates, three hours of hard study wear out the body more than a whole day at the anvil or on a farm. "Without phosphorus, no thought," is a German saying; and the consumption of that essential ingredient of the brain increases in proportion to the amount of labor which the organ is required to perform. This wear and tear of the brain are easily measured by careful examination of the salts in the liquid excretions. The importance of the brain as a working organ is shown by the amount of blood it receives which is proportionately greater than that of any other part of the body. One-fifth of the blood goes to the brain, though its average weight is only one-fortieth of the weight of the body. This fact alone would be sufficient to prove that brain workers need more food and better food than mechanics and farm laborers.—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

THE Springfield Republican gives a very fair review of the evidence on both sides of the Livingstone-Stanley question, and decides thereon that Stanley has accomplished what he claims to have accomplished. It then makes a pertinent suggestion that there should be an immediate and complete exploration of Africa by the combined resources of Christian governments." "There is," it says, "no longer reason why we should not chase the mountains of the moon into their last hiding place and know where the Nile comes from. The money spent in exploring the barren arctic regions would have put a locomotive into Ujiji before this time. Christianity, commerce, self-interest and science all demand that the African sphinx be forced to give up its secret. Before another decade passes, inner Africa must be opened up and prospected, and mapped in all the primary geographies so that even Dr. Livingstone's grandson could not lose himself there; and before the century is out, railroads, telegraphs, newspapers and churches must be planted in the inner courts of her mysterious and the sealed lips and chained hands of her people be added to the worshipping and working forces of civilization.

A GEORGIA paper tells a good story of one of the candidates for County Sheriff in that State. The candidate, a physician, lately stopped to talk with a man who, with his two daughters, was pulling fodder, and the doctor, in order to keep alongside of him, commenced pulling fodder in the row he was walking in. When he had fairly got settled down to it, the farmer says: "Excuse me a minute while I step over to the house—you just knock along with the girls here," and he left. At this the girls made the fodder fly, going down the rows in double quick time. The doctor manfully went in, hand over hand, shucked his coat and did his level best. He panted, he sweated, and yet he shoved along under the broiling sun while the farmer was in his piazza with his pipe lit, taking it cool, laughing in his sleeve. In about an hour he went out to the field and released the doctor. They say the doctor never hinted "sheriff" to him, but jerked up his coat and left; and now he don't go in fodder fields for votes—he dodges 'em.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land.—Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the paryt's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individuals's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulyssess S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO DEMOCRAT COMES OUT FOR GRANT

To the Editor of the Chicago Evening Journal:

As numerous Democratic friends and acquaintances are daily inquiring of me as to my views and position in connection with the pending political contest, I wish to say that I have been a life long Democrat, and at all times and under all circumstances have stood by my party, and would be glad to do so still, were it not that the party and its principles, by a wicked and unholy combination of certain leaders, through the Baltimore Convention in conjunction with the Republican soreheads congregated together at Cincinnati, have sold out to our enemies, therefore the question is presented as to what is our duty under the circumstances. My political action through life has been based upon what I honestly believed to be principle. When my name was used as a delegate to the Louisville Convention it was without my knowledge or consent, and fairness to them and justice to myself impels me to say so. While I believe that many distinguished gentlemen who participated in the proceedings of that convention were desirous of preserving intact the organization of the old Democratic party, still I believe that united action against the so-called Liberal party, in the support of the regular Republican ticket, will best preserve the principles of true Democracy; therefore in my judgment, it is the duty of every patriotic Democrat and good citizen to so vote and act as to prevent so great a calamity to our country and its prosperity as would be the election of Horace Greeley to the Presidency. Therefore, I shall give my vote to General Grant, and what little influence I may have shall be used for the success of the Republican party. I shall take occasion at some future time to address my fellow citizens on the political questions of the day, and define more fully my views of the situation and the duty of Democrats, as I understand it.

By giving this hastily written note a place in your columns, you will oblige, and at the same time furnish my answer to all inquiring friends. Very respectfully your obedient servant,

S. ASHTON.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6, '72.

OUR MACON CORRESPONDENT, we are sorry to say, speaks rather slightingly of Buckingham's speech at that place last Saturday evening. We had hoped that everybody would be able to regard his speeches in the same favorable light in which they strike us. We started Buckingham into the race, with a fair "send-off," and have stoutly maintained ever since that he makes a good speech. We can only account for his failure to make a good impression at Macon to the fact that he felt somewhat dashed by having the eloquent and polished Hornbarger in his audience. If the presence of superior orators has such an effect upon our friend we would admonish him to keep away from Dalton City, for in that young metropolis of the border lives the brave warrior and silver-tongued orator, Capting Benjaming Frankling Loving. Better stay in Decatur, Buck., where people cannot fail to appreciate you.

THE TRINITY AT MACON.

MACON, ILLS., Sept. 9, 1872.

EDITORS DAILY REPUBLICAN:

Last Saturday evening the citizens of this place had a delectable treat in the shape of a Liberal Republican meeting in Macon Hall. There had been posted up over the surrounding country flaming hand bills, announcing a Greeley and Kœrner meeting in Macon, on Saturday evening, Sept. 7th, to be addressed by able speakers. The inexplicable J. G. H. had even intimated that James Robinson and Lyman Trumbull would be on hand, and we of the Republican faith, minus the adjective, were on the qui vive for something above the average, and anticipated a regular shower of Democratic thunderbolts. But alas! how sorely we were doomed to be disappointed. Saturday evening came, but no Robinson or Trumbull; but in their stead a Political Trinity from Decatur, Ill Buckingham, Eldridge and Smith drove their caparisoned steeds up before the imposing edifice in which that night their resonant voices were to be heard. A Pickwickian committee met them as they alighted from their vehicle, and the bashful Buckingham turned over the library and baggage to them, and by the music of the band the Trinity passed up into the hall, where a motley crowd received them. Jas. Hopson was appointed chairman, and the entertainment opened

The placid countenance of Buckingham, the first of the trinity, arose above the footboards. (At this stage of the meeting the crowd numbered about 70, of whom over one-half were Republicans.) He waxed warm over Boutwell's syndicate—he said it was an extraordinary word, meaning Jay Gould & Co., bankers—that Webster did not define its meaning. By this time his ebon locks were flung back from his majestic brow: The stateliness of his tread upon the platform, the terribleness of his ranting, so lion-like, were strikingly grand. But when he told the story of Aunt Susan getting religion, the climax was capped; the audience was wild with enthusiasm, and he proposed to shake hands across the "bloody chasm," remarking that he was running for County Attorney.

Thus closed a remarkable performance, and the appearance of Eldridge, the second of the Trinity, who sung a song of about thirty minutes duration. He said he had been a Republican all the days of his life, and had always voted the Republican tickets, but he had witnessed so much dishonesty in the present administration he was compelled to leave it. Oh, what an ornament the Republican party has lost!—He also told the old bung-hole story, and it seemed as if the Trinity had laid out a programme which each one was to adhere to. He wound up by saying Mr. Buckingham was running for County Attorney, Bradford K. Durfee for Circuit Clerk, John H. Miller for Sheriff, and a man by the name of Ungst for Coroner.—He hoped the audience would cast their votes for them; they were sound Liberals. Thus closed Eldridge's exhortation.

John Smith, the third one of the Trinity, proceeded then to discuss the great questions of the day. He said the present campaign was one of great importance, and that it was necessary to put men in office for the next presidential term who were strictly honest; that the present movement was one that was calculated to inspire the hope that "corruption and fraud would be forever wiped out." He dwelt on glittering generalities, and then he, too, succumbed and took his seat.

But the Hercules of the evening, Jacob Frick, had something to say, and he said it. Nepotism, corruption, abuse of civil service, were each in their place exhumed. His voice went up in the octaves, and he said he cared not what other men thought of this life, he was in favor of Greeley and Kœrner.

James Hopson then made a few remarks pertinent to the occasion, closing with a benediction.

Thus closed the Liberal Republican meeting in this place. It is painfully true that they did not number over thirty-three, and the speeches of the embryotic orators were void of argument. I never listened to words that fell so cold upon a crowd.—The Liberal Republican movement in this place is a farce; it has had its day, and if it had not been for the Republicans of this place their meeting would have been a complete fizzle. G. A.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel, the leading Democratic organ of Indiana, has expressed the following opinion of the Missouri Senator:

"Carl Schurz is a mercenary Hessian, willing to fight on any side for pay."

The charge which Schurz makes for delivering his speech to an Indiana audience is two hundred dollars.

THE MARVELLOUS BUILDING UP OF CHICAGO.

Great Fire in Memphis Yesterday.

FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The Tribune to-day says editorially we know of no words which will better convey to persons residing outside of Chicago, an idea of what has been done in the way of rebuilding the city, than to say that beginning on April 15th, and ending Dec. 1, excluding Sunday's, counting 200 working days and each day at eight hours, and there will be completed one brick stone or iron building 25 feet front, and from four to six stories high for each hour of that time; or in other words the buildings of that size and character completed, and that will be completed by Dec. 1st., will average one for each sixty minutes of 200 days of eight hours each.

The regular commerce of the city has surpassed even the increase of the past, and trade in all branches will be 50 per cent. greater than that of any year before the fire.

A meeting of leading capitalists to erect an Opera House worthy of Chicago will be held soon.

The last stone on the new Sherman House was laid yesterday afternoon.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—A special to the Journal says: Intelligence reaches here to-day from Beardstown that a mob, composed of the friends of Ed. Milsted, the man who was murdered at Virginia, in Cass county, Ill., on Thursday evening last, by C. F. Diffenbacher, went last night to Beardstown, where Diffenbacher is confined in jail, for the avowed purpose of taking him from the prison by force and hanging him. Arriving there, and finding that the jail was strongly guarded by a band of brave and determined men, the mob became terribly exasperated and set fire to the town. Our informant states that before the flames could be subdued an entire block of the best buildings in the place was laid in ashes. The mob made no attempt to take Diffenbacher from jail, being deterred from doing so by the strong-armed guard around it. Last night was indeed a night of terrors to the people of Beardstown. The excitement is so intense, and the determination of Milsted's friends so fixed and strong to avenge his death, that fears are entertained that more blood will be shed and additional incendiarisms perpetrated.

FROM VERMONT.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 8.—Semi-official returns from all but four small towns gives Converse 42,222 votes and Gardner 16,604. Converse' majority is 25,618. The remaining towns gave in 1870, 110 Republican majority. The Senate is unanimously Republican and the House of Representatives stands as follows: Republicans 206; Democrats, 21. In 1870 the Democrats had 2 Senators and 29 Representatives.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—A well-known gentleman and experienced politician, who has been traveling through the West and Northwest in the service of the Liberal movement, and who is an earnest Greeley man, informs his Liberal friends here that he finds unexpected apathy toward Greeley among Republicans everywhere; that Michigan will go for Grant by a strong majority; that while both Illinois and Iowa will show large Greeley strength, neither State can be carried for him, and that the best which can be expected in Illinois is to reduce Grant's majority to 15,000. He regards Indiana as certain for Grant, but thinks the majority will be small.

All parties are waiting on the result in Maine to-morrow, from which the Greeley Democrats are trying in advance to extract some comfort by calculating how much the Republican majorities will be reduced; but ample advices from committees and speakers make it almost certain that we shall not only maintain but increase our majority. We shall elect the Congressmen, and elect the Governor by at least 15,000 majority. Hale, in the district which was at first regarded as doubtful, is now confident of nearly his previous majority.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Commenting on the prospects in Maine to morrow, the Sunday News says: "Maine, unlike Vermont, has been always considered debatable, and, though the Liberals and Democrats don't expect to carry the State for Governor, they hope to show substantial gains on the popular vote, and elect one, if not more, Congressmen.

The Times' special from Augusta says the prospect holds good for a decisive Republican victory to-morrow.—The Republicans confidently expect to carry every member of Congress, and thirteen out of sixteen counties.

To-day was one of the hottest of the season, the thermometer rising to 79° at three p. m. Weather very warm to-night, with a prospect of a continued hot spell.

Detective James Irving was sent on to Washington to-day to bring the man Forester, supposed to be the murderer of Nathan, to this city. The police here do not attach much importance to the affair, and do not believe the man committed the deed. They are unwilling to give any particulars. But little fresh evidence, further than that published at the time of the murder, has been found against Forester.

Bankers on Wall street express great fears for the immediate financial future, and are anxious to have the Presidential question settled as soon as possible. They are nearly all desirous for Grant's election, and say that a handsome Republican majority in Maine will give relief to the market, as it will determine the result of the Presidential campaign.

FROM TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 8.—The most destructive fire which has occurred here in ten years broke out this morning at 2½ o'clock, at a shoemaker's shop, No. 42 Second street. Owing to the long drouth, and the combustible material in the buildings, before the engines were fairly at work the flames had spread so rapidly that it was thought the great Chicago fire would be repeated, as within half an hour from the time the fire was first discovered the entire block from Union to Monroe was on fire, and the air filled with sparks, which ignited in numerous places, some buildings being fully ten blocks distant. When the fire reached the extensive carriage works of Bruce & Co., many of the guests of the Peabody Hotel, believing that that building would follow, hastily evacuated it. The streets were crowded with people who were rendering valuable assistance in removing goods, as day was breaking, when Bruce's manufactory fell with a terrible crash, its huge walls and roof smothering the raging flames inside, which soon enabled the firemen to obtain control of it; but southward the flames had spread to Brockwith's livery stable, Wallace & Gibsons's carriage works, and Warner's livery stable, and in fact swept everything to Union street, and for a long time it was feared that the opera house, with the post office, court rooms, etc., would be burned. It was filled with goods. Many of the inmates of the small shops on Union street barely escaped with their lives. The total loss is not far from $210,000, about half of which is covered by insurance, mostly in local companies.

FROM INDIANA.

TERRE HAUTE, Sept. 8.—Gen. John A. Logan addressed an immense gathering of Republicans of this and the adjacent counties, in the Court House square, on Saturday evening. Before the speaking there was the largest torch-light procession ever made in Terre Haute, more than two thousand two hundred torches being in line. On the same evening Hon. George R. Wendling, of Illinois, addressed the Democrats and Liberal Republicans at the Greeley temple. The campaign here is becoming intensely exciting, both parties working earnestly and hopefully.

FROM KANSAS.

PAOLA, Sept. 7.—A terrible double murder occurred seven miles from here last evening. Caleb Sheerer, a wealthy farmer living in Ossawattie township, in a fit of insanity produced by family difficulties, murdered his daughter—Mrs. Wallace—and dangerously wounded his wife. He then attacked Wallace, who, in defending himself, struck Sheerer, causing his instant death. The wounds received by Mrs. Sheerer and Wallace are pronounced fatal.

FOREIGN NEWS.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 7.—Two women at the capital, jealous of each other, fought a duel, and were attended by women seconds. One of them was armed with a bone and the other with an ordinary dagger. The one with a bone dagger killed her antagonist.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, Sept 7.—A grand military parade took place to-day, at which the three emperors headed their respective regiments.

SPAIN.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—An organized agitation against slavery is soon to be inaugurated. A series of public meetings will be held at Madrid, Seville, Barcelona and other large cities, and a petition for the abolition of slavery in the Spanish colonies will be circulated.

The report that the Spanish government had requested the recall of Gen. Sickles has been formally contradicted in official circles.

WHAT TRUMBULL SAID ONE YEAR AGO.

The following is a extract from a speech of Lyman Trumbull, made at the Republican State Convention, September 20, 1871, at Springfield, Ill.:

Now, what political organization will be safest for the American people? Hereafter where shall we look? Shall we look to that party which brought upon the Government civil war; to that party which ruined the credit of the nation, so that it could not borrow money at less than from 12 to 30 per cent. per annum; to that party which inaugurated the doctrine that to the victors belong the spoils; to that party which now desires further to depreciate the currency by issuing millions and millions more of it? If it is believed by the American people, no matter to what party they belong, Republican or Democratic that the Government of the country will be safest in the hands of these men, that the men many of whom sought to destroy the Government will be more likely to preserve it than those who fought for its existence; that the men who ruined its credit will be more likely to improve it than those who, when it was ruined, have already re-established it to a great extent; if you look for reform to them, then it is the duty of the voter to go to the polls and vote with the Democratic party. But if the people of this country believe that economy has been introduced into the public service since the Republican party took possession of the Government; if they believe that the government is more secure and the rights of the citizens better protected; free speech and free press in all parts of the land, better secured than under the older organization, then it is their duty to vote with the Republican party. The ship of state ten years ago was crippled—it had been run upon the quicksands and was falling to pieces. The Republican party took possession of her. They have been sailing her for the last ten years, not only over the boisterous waves of political commotion, but through the terrific tornadoes of civil war, and they have brought the noble old ship upon a peaceful ocean, strengthened in all her parts, magnificent in all her proportions; and there she now rides in peace and prosperity; and there is outside, the Democratic party beating among the seas, driven for ten years hither and thither by every wind of passion, taking a new departure, and seeking to find the old ship. If you believe that they can man her better, and sail her more safely, put them in possession of her; but if you think men who saved her are the best to steer her safely hereafter into the haven of peace and prosperity for the American people, then keep them at the helm. [Applause.]

THE following shows Mr. Greeley's views on carpet-baggers in 1868. It comes from the New York Tribune of that year. In referring to complaints from the South, Mr. Greeley then said:

"We do business in a city governed by carpet-baggers only just over from Cork, Limerick and Sauer-Krautenthal. The difference between our carpet-baggers from Europe and those with which the rebellious Hamptons are afflicted, is that ours are generally as deficient in mental and moral cultivation as in property. We believe most of the Southern carpet-baggers have at least made the acquaintance of the school master.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO DEMOCRAT COMES OUT FOR GRANT

To the Editor of the Chicago Evening Journal:

As numerous Democratic friends and acquaintances are daily inquiring of me as to my views and position in connection with the pending political contest, I wish to say that I have been a life long Democrat, and at all times and under all circumstances have stood by my party, and would be glad to do so still, were it not that the party and its principles, by a wicked and unholy combination of certain leaders, through the Baltimore Convention in conjunction with the Republican soreheads congregated together at Cincinnati, have sold out to our enemies, therefore the question is presented as to what is our duty under the circumstances. My political action through life has been based upon what I honestly believed to be principle. When my name was used as a delegate to the Louisville Convention it was without my knowledge or consent, and fairness to them and justice to myself impels me to say so. While I believe that many distinguished gentlemen who participated in the proceedings of that convention were desirous of preserving intact the organization of the old Democratic party, still I believe that united action against the so-called Liberal party, in the support of the regular Republican ticket, will best preserve the principles of true Democracy; therefore in my judgment, it is the duty of every patriotic Democrat and good citizen to so vote and act as to prevent so great a calamity to our country and its prosperity as would be the election of Horace Greeley to the Presidency. Therefore, I shall give my vote to General Grant, and what little influence I may have shall be used for the success of the Republican party. I shall take occasion at some future time to address my fellow citizens on the political questions of the day, and define more fully my views of the situation and the duty of Democrats, as I understand it.

By giving the hastily written note a place in your columns, you will oblige, and at the same time furnish my answer to all inquiring friends. Very respectfully your obedient servant,

S. ASHTON.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6, '72.

OUR MACON CORRESPONDENT, we are sorry to say, speaks rather slightingly of Buckingham's speech at that place last Saturday evening. We had hoped that everybody would be able to regard his speeches in the same favorable light in which they strike us. We started Buckingham into the race, with a fair "send-off," and have stoutly maintained ever since that he makes a good speech. We can only account for his failure to make a good impression at Macon to the fact that he felt somewhat dashed by having the eloquent and polished Hornbarger in his audience. If the presence of superior orators has such an effect upon our friend we would admonish him to keep away from Dalton City, for in that young metropolis of the border lives the brave warrior and silver-tongued orator, Capting Benjaming Frankling Loving. Better stay in Decatur, Buck., where people cannot fail to appreciate you.

THE TRINITY AT MACON.

MACON, ILLS., Sept. 9, 1872.

EDITORS DAILY REPUBLICAN:

Last Saturday evening the citizens of this place had a delectable treat in the shape of a Liberal Republican meeting in Macon Hall. There had been posted up over the surrounding country flaming hand bills, announcing a Greeley and Koerner meeting in Macon, on Saturday evening, Sept. 7th, to be addressed by able speakers. The inexplicable J. G. H. had even intimated that James Robinson and Lyman Trumbull would be on hand, and we of the Republican faith, minus the adjective, were on the qui vive for something above the average, and anticipated a regular shower of Democratic thunderbolts. But alas! how sorely we were doomed to be disappointed. Saturday evening came, but no Robinson or Trumbull; but in their stead a Political Trinity from Decatur, Ill Buckingham, Eldridge and Smith drove their caparisoned steeds up before the imposing edifice in which that night their resonant voices were to be heard. A Pickwickian committee met them as they alighted from their vehicle, and the bashful Buckingham turned over the library and baggage to them, and by the music of the band the Trinity passed up into the hall, where a motley crowd received them. Jas. Hopson was appointed chairman, and the entertainment opened.

The placid countenance of Buckingham, the first of the trinity, arose above the footboards. (At this stage of the meeting the crowd numbered about 70, of whom over one-half were Republicans.) He waxed warm over Boutwell's syndicate—he said it was an extraordinary word, meaning Jay Gould & Co., bankers—that Webster did not define its meaning. By this time his ebon locks were flung back from his majestic brow: The stateliness of his tread upon the platform, the terribleness of his ranting, so lion-like, were strikingly grand. But when he told the story of Aunt Susan getting religion, the climax was capped; the audience was wild with enthusiasm, and he proposed to shake hands across the "bloody chasm," remarking that he was running for County Attorney.

Thus closed a remarkable performance, and the appearance of Eldridge, the second of the Trinity, who sung a song of about thirty minutes duration. He said he had been a Republican all the days of his life, and had always voted the Republican tickets, but he had witnessed so much dishonesty in the present administration he was compelled to leave it. Oh, what an ornament the Republican party has lost!—He also told the old bung-hole story, and it seemed as if the Trinity had laid out a programme which each one was to adhere to. He wound up by saying Mr. Buckingham was running for County Attorney, Bradford K. Durfee for Circuit Clerk, John H. Miller for Sheriff, and a man by the name of Ungst for Coroner.—He hoped the audience would cast their votes for them; they were sound Liberals. Thus closed Eldridge's exhortation.

John Smith, the third one of the Trinity, proceeded then to discuss the great questions of the day. He said the present campaign was one of great importance, and that it was necessary to put men in office for the next presidential term who were strictly honest; that the present movement was one that was calculated to inspire the hope that "corruption and fraud would be forever wiped out." He dwelt on glittering generalities, and then he, too, succumbed and took his seat.

But the Hercules of the evening, Jacob Frick, had something to say, and he said it. Nepotism, corruption, abuse of civil service, were each in their place exhumed. His voice went up in the octaves, and he said he cared not what other men thought of this life, he was in favor of Greeley and Koerner.

James Hopson then made a few remarks pertinent to the occasion, closing with a benediction.

Thus closed the Liberal Republican meeting in this place. It is painfully true that they did not number over thirty-three, and the speeches of the embryotic orators were void of argument. I never listened to words that fell so cold upon a crowd.—The Liberal Republican movement in this place is a farce; it has had its day, and if it had not been for the Republicans of this place their meeting would have been a complete fizzle. G. A.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel, the leading Democratic organ of Indiana, has expressed the following opinion of the Missouri Senator:

"Carl Schurz is a mercenary Hessian, willing to fight on any side for pay."

The charge which Schurz makes for delivering his speech to an Indiana audience is two hundred dollars.

ATTEMPT TO BURN BEARDSTOWN, ILL.

DOUBLE MURDER IN KANSAS.

THE MARVELLOUS BUILDING UP OF CHICAGO.

Great Fire in Memphis Yesterday.

FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The Tribune today says editorially we know of no words which will better convey to persons residing outside of Chicago, an idea of what has been done in the way of rebuilding the city, than to say that beginning on April 15th, and ending Dec. 1, excluding Sunday's, counting 200 working days and each day at eight hours, and there will be completed one brick stone or iron building 25 feet front, and from four to six stories high for each hour of that time; or in other words the buildings of that size and character completed, and that will be completed by Dec. 1st., will average one for each sixty minutes of 200 days of eight hours each.

The regular commerce of the city has surpassed even the increase of the past, and trade in all branches will be 50 per cent. greater than that of any year before the fire.

A meeting of leading capitalists to erect an Opera House worthy of Chicago will be held soon.

The last stone on the new Sherman House was laid yesterday afternoon.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—A special to the Journal says: Intelligence reaches here to-day from Beardstown that a mob, composed of the friends of Ed. Milsted, the man who was murdered at Virginia, in Cass county, Ill., on Thursday evening last, by C. F. Diffenbacher, went last night to Beardstown, where Diffenbacher is confined in jail, for the avowed purpose of taking him from the prison by force and hanging him. Arriving there, and finding that the jail was strongly guarded by a band of brave and determined men, the mob became terribly exasperated and set fire to the town. Our informant states that before the flames could be subdued an entire block of the best buildings in the place was laid in ashes. The mob made no attempt to take Diffenbacher from jail, being deterred from doing so by the strong-armed guard around it. Last night was indeed a night of terrors to the people of Beardstown. The excitement is so intense, and the determination of Milsted's friends so fixed and strong to avenge his death, that fears are entertained that more blood will be shed and additional incendiarisms perpetrated.

FROM VERMONT.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 8.—Semi-official returns from all but four small towns gives Converse 42,222 votes and Gardner 16,604. Converse' majority is 25,618. The remaining towns gave in 1870, 110 Republican majority. The Senate is unanimously Republican and the House of Representatives stands as follows: Republicans 206; Democrats, 21. In 1870 the Democrats had 2 Senators and 29 Representatives.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—A well-known gentleman and experienced politician, who has been traveling through the West and Northwest in the service of the Liberal movement, and who is an earnest Greeley man, informs his Liberal friends here that he finds unexpected apathy toward Greeley among Republicans everywhere; that Michigan will go for Grant by a strong majority; that while both Illinois and Iowa will show large Greeley strength, neither State can be carried for him, and that the best which can be expected in Illinois is to reduce Grant's majority to 15,000. He regards Indiana as certain for Grant, but thinks the majority will be small.

All parties are waiting on the result in Maine to-morrow, from which the Greeley Democrats are trying in advance to extract some comfort by calculating how much the Republican majorities will be reduced; but ample advices from committees and speakers make it almost certain that we shall not only maintain but increase our majority. We shall elect the Congressmen, and elect the Governor by at least 15,000 majority. Hale, in the district which was at first regarded as doubtful, is now confident of nearly his previous majority.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Commenting on the prospects in Maine to-morrow, the Sunday News says: "Maine, unlike Vermont, has been always considered debatable, and, though the Liberals and Democrats don't expect to carry the State for Governor, they hope to show substantial gains on the popular vote, and elect one, if not more, Congressmen.

The Times' special from Augusta says the prospect holds good for a decisive Republican victory to-morrow.—The Republicans confidently expect to carry every member of Congress, and thirteen out of sixteen counties.

To-day was one of the hottest of the season, the thermometer rising to 79° at three p. m. Weather very warm to-night, with a prospect of a continued hot spell.

Detective James Irving was sent on to Washington to-day to bring the man Forester, supposed to be the murderer of Nathan, to this city. The police here do not attach much importance to the affair, and do not believe the man committed the deed. They are unwilling to give any particulars. But little fresh evidence, further than that published at the time of the murder, has been found against Forester.

Bankers on Wall street express great fears for the immediate financial future, and are anxious to have the Presidential question settled as soon as possible. They are nearly all desirous for Grant's election, and say that a handsome Republican majority in Maine will give relief to the market, as it will determine the result of the Presidential campaign.

FROM TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 8.—The most destructive fire which has occurred here in ten years broke out this morning at 2½ o'clock, at a shoemaker's shop, No. 42 Second street. Owing to the long drouth, and the combustible material in the buildings, before the engines were fairly at work the flames had spread so rapidly that it was thought the great Chicago fire would be repeated, as within half an hour from the time the fire was first discovered the entire block from Union to Monroe was on fire, and the air filled with sparks, which ignited in numerous places, some buildings being fully ten blocks distant. When the fire reached the extensive carriage works of Bruce & Co., many of the guests of the Peabody Hotel, believing that that building would follow, hastily evacuated it. The streets were crowded with people who were rendering valuable assistance in removing goods, as day was breaking, when Bruce's manufactory fell with a terrible crash, its huge walls and roof smothering the raging flames inside, which soon enabled the firemen to obtain control of it; but southward the flames had spread to Brockwith's livery stable, Wallace & Gibsons's carriage works, and Warner's livery stable, and in fact swept everything to Union street, and for a long time it was feared that the opera house, with the post office, court rooms, etc., would be burned. It was filled with goods. Many of the inmates of the small shops on Union street barely escaped with their lives. The total loss is not far from $210,000, about half of which is covered by insurance, mostly in local companies.

FROM INDIANA.

TERRE HAUTE, Sept. 8.—Gen. John A. Logan addressed an immense gathering of Republicans of this and the adjacent counties, in the Court House square, on Saturday evening. Before the speaking there was the largest torch-light procession ever made in Terre Haute, more than two thousand two hundred torches being in line. On the same evening Hon. George R. Wendling, of Illinois, addressed the Democrats and Liberal Republicans at the Greeley temple. The campaign here is becoming intensely exciting, both parties working earnestly and hopefully.

FROM KANSAS.

PAOLA, Sept. 7.—A terrible double murder occurred seven miles from here last evening. Caleb Sheerer, a wealthy farmer living in Ossawattie township, in a fit of insanity produced by family difficulties, murdered his daughter—Mrs. Wallace—and dangerously wounded his wife. He then attacked Wallace, who, in defending himself, struck Sheerer, causing his instant death. The wounds received by Mrs. Sheerer and Wallace are pronounced fatal.

FOREIGN NEWS.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 7.—Two women at the capital, jealous of each other, fought a duel, and were attended by women seconds. One of them was armed with a bone and the other with an ordinary dagger. The one with a bone dagger killed her antagonist.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, Sept 7.—A grand military parade took place to-day, at which the three emperors headed their respective regiments.

SPAIN.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—An organized agitation against slavery is soon to be inaugurated. A series of public meetings will be held at Madrid, Seville, Barcelona and other large cities, and a petition for the abolition of slavery in the Spanish colonies will be circulated.

The report that the Spanish government had requested the recall of Gen. Sickles has been formally contradicted in official circles.

WHAT TRUMBULL SAID ONE YEAR AGO.

The following is a extract from a speech of Lyman Trumbull, made at the Republican State Convention, September 20, 1871, at Springfield, Ill.:

Now, what political organization will be safest for the American people? Hereafter where shall we look? Shall we look to that party which brought upon the Government civil war; to that party which ruined the credit of the nation, so that it could not borrow money at less than from 12 to 30 per cent. per annum; to that party which inaugurated the doctrine that to the victors belong the spoils; to that party which now desires further to depreciate the currency by issuing millions and millions more of it? If it is believed by the American people, no matter to what party they belong, Republican or Democratic that the Government of the country will be safest in the hands of these men, that the men many of whom sought to destroy the Government will be more likely to preserve it than those who fought for its existence; that the men who ruined its credit will be more likely to improve it than those who, when it was ruined, have already re-established it to a great extent; if you look for reform to them, then it is the duty of the voter to go to the polls and vote with the Democratic party. But if the people of this country believe that economy has been introduced into the public service since the Republican party took possession of the Government; if they believe that the government is more secure and the rights of the citizens better protected; free speech and free press in all parts of the land, better secured than under the older organization, then it is their duty to vote with the Republican party. The ship of state ten years ago was crippled—it had been run upon the quicksands and was falling to pieces. The Republican party took possession of her. They have been sailing her for the last ten years, not only over the boisterous waves of political commotion, but through the terrific tornadoes of civil war, and they have brought the noble old ship upon a peaceful ocean, strengthened in all her parts, magnificent in all her proportions; and there she now rides in peace and prosperity; and there is outside, the Democratic party beating among the seas, driven for ten years hither and thither by every wind of passion, taking a new departure, and seeking to find the old ship. If you believe that they can man her better, and sail her more safely, put them in possession of her; but if you think men who saved her are the best to steer her safely hereafter into the haven of peace and prosperity for the American people, then keep them at the helm. [Applause.]

THE following shows Mr. Greeley's views on carpet-baggers in 1868. It comes from the New York Tribune of that year. In referring to complaints from the South, Mr. Greeley then said:

"We do business in a city governed by carpet-baggers only just over from Cork, Limerick and Sauer-Krautenthal. The difference between our carpet-baggers from Europe and those with which the rebellious Hamptons are afflicted, is that ours are generally as deficient in mental and moral cultivation as in property. We believe most of the Southern carpet-baggers have at least made the acquaintance of the school master.

The Daily Republican.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Monday Evening, Sept. 9.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN will be delivered to subscribers in any part of the city, at Twenty Cents per Week.

Local Notices will be inserted at Ten Cents per line for the first insertion, and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Rates for time advertisements will be furnished upon application at the office.

TO DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscriptions to the DAILY REPUBLICAN will be collected every Saturday, at the places where the paper is delivered, unless otherwise ordered.

IMPORTANT.

We would be much obliged if our subscribers would inform the carrier at what particular place they desire their papers to be left.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..Remember the county fair begins to-morrow.

...C. B. Cole, Esq., freight agent of the T., W. & W. Railway, is quite ill with intermittent fever. It is hoped he will be all right in a few days.

..Dr. J. N. Randall, of Taylorville, is in town to-day. He informs us that there is a very great deal of sickness in that locality, principally chills, billous fevers, and diseases of that character.

...The "Skinners" are to be re-organized, and night again made hideous by the yells which, fortunately for the peace and comfort of our citizens, were hushed on a certain dark November night, nearly four years ago.

..Gov Oglesby reached home on the noon train to-day, and has no appointment until next Saturday, when he is to speak at Litchfield. He is somewhat exhausted by his severe labors, but holds up remarkably well.

...The Agricultural Works have suspended operations for five weeks, to give the managers an opportunity to visit the several State and county fairs this fall where they will exhibit their implements.

...The public schools opened this morning, and Young America no longer runs at large upon the streets. We learn that in several of the schools more pupils applied for admission than could be accommodated with seats.

..Mr. Jacob Seitz, of Oakley township, brought to our office on Saturday morning, a basket full of peaches and apples from his farm. The apples are particularly fine, and the peaches, though not large, are excellent in quality and flavor. Mr. S. will please accept our thanks for his welcome present.

...The rain which fell last night cooled the atmosphere very materially, laid the dust most effectually, and freshened things up generally. If an injunction could now be served upon the mosquitoes, to prevent their nightly concerts and restrain them from making their oft repeated and bloody assaults upon suffering mortals, existence would be at least tolerable.

..Mr. A. L. Petzer, of Whitmore township, this morning gladdened the hearts of our printers, by rolling into our office a couple of fine watermelons, which were speedily dissected and devoured, "all hands" answering to the call from labor to refreshments. Mr. Petzer is a straight out Republican, and not having followed the teachings of the great Chappaquack he raises good melons.

FAIR PROSPECTS.

The prospects of the Fifteenth Annual Fair of this county, commencing to-morrow, (Tuesday,) and continuing four days, although considerable apprehension of failure had been entertained, are favorable beyond expectation. The weather could not be more propitious, the rain last night greatly ameliorating the condition of the stock, as well as rendering the highways agreeable and the weather delightful.

The grounds have been fitted up so that for convenience of arrangement, and for the accommodation of the patrons in the exhibition of their products, and for the comfort of the general visiting community, they were never better. Entry tickets are being rapidly disposed of, and numerous fine specimens of the various kinds of live stock, agricultural, floricultural and horticultural products, machinery, etc., have been entered, and are now on the grounds. The secretary is now devoting his time exclusively to the recording of entries, and from him we learn that there will be a finer display of live stock, a grander exhibition of mechanical ingenuity, and a better and more complete representation of all the various branches of industry than Macon county has ever given before.

The weather to day is rather lowering, and prospects for rain are good, which is highly favorable to the stock, and will rid the grounds of dust, only tending to make everything more pleasant.

A large attendance is looked for. Great preparations have been made, and no effort spared to make the Fair this year a decided success.

Another Soldier Gone.—Hugh Hartley, father of our townsman, John W. Hartley, died Sunday night, Sept. 8th, 1872. Mr. Hartley was a resident of Jefferson county, since 1810, and served in the Indian war of 1832; he lived and died a Jackson Democrat. His age was 67. His father lived to be 96 years of age, and his father was one of those who came over in the Mayflower.

Mounted Tanners.—A meeting will be held at the Tanner headquarters, No. 21 Merchant street, on Monday evening, Sept. 9th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a mounted company. A general attendance is desired. [Sep 6-3t

IMPOSING DISPLAY!

First Tanner Parade!

Last Saturday evening the several Tanner companies whose organization had been perfected paraded for the first time. The force consisted of Capt. McClellan's company, the Rolling Mill company, under command of Captain Ira Harris, the Juvenile Tanners, under command of Capt. Park Hammer, and the colored company, under command of Lieut Robinson Each company had its own drum corps, and all were in full uniform. After parading the principal streets, the battalion drew up in front of the REPUBLICAN office, where a flag was presented to the Juvenile company by Messrs. Abel & Locke. The presentation speech was made by Master John Bunn, and was responded to on behalf of the company by Capt Park Hammer. The line was again formed, and after another siege of marching the force was massed in front of Litsinberger & Sutton's store, where Mr. L. F. Muzzy addressed the tanners in a short but exceedingly happy speech, at the close of which Col. W. H Harris was unanimously elected Colonel of the regiment, and Mr. D. Samuel president of the organization.—The several companies then gave three cheers for Grant, Wilson and Oglesby, and marched away to their respective quarters.

Notwithstanding the threatening appearance of the clouds, and the prospect of a storm, the streets were crowded with people,—men, women and children, lining the sidewalks in all directions. Considering the fact that but little notice had been given of the proposed parade, and no particular effort made to draw out a crowd, the display was in all respects creditable, and republicans went home feeling renewed faith in the triumph of a cause which the people so heartily endorse by every manifestation of approval.

The Citizens' Meeting at the court house on Saturday evening was not very largely attended, the notice having been rather too short to call out much of a crowd. H. B. Durfee, Esq, presided, and upon his suggestion Mr. K. H. Roby stated the object of the meeting to be to take into consideration the proposition of the Paris & Decatur Railroad Company to locate their shops at this place. Mr. Hervey, on behalf of the Company, made a statement of the affairs of the company, to the effect that the road is now completed and in operation from Paris to a point ten miles east of Decatur; that proposals have been received to divert the line from the direction originally intended and carry it to Springfield, but that an agreement had been made with the Ill. Central Railroad Company by which the P. & D. road could be brought into this place by making an intersection with the track of the former south of the river, thereby saving a large amount in grading and bridging. After remarks by other citizens the resolution which had been adopted at the informal meeting on Saturday, and which was published in our issue of that day, was re-adopted, and a committee consisting of James Millikin, J. J Peddecord, John Ullrich, W. H. Ennis and Dr. S. McBride appointed to confer with the representatives of the Company, for the purpose of ascertaining the capacity of the proposed shops, etc. The meeting then adjourned.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Joseph Jasper Hodge, one of our oldest citizens, died suddenly at his residence on West Wood street, last Saturday night. Mr. Hodge was born in 1822, in Orange county, North Carolina, and while an infant removed with his parents to Kentucky. In 1829 he came with his mother to this State, and in 1831 they settled near the head of Long Creek, in this county. He was married in 1845, and resided in Decatur for 17 years past. He was a good citizen, an upright man and a kind neighbor. He was in his usual health until a week or two ago, since which time he had several attacks of ague. On Saturday he took something like a congestive chill, and died in a few hours. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this forenoon, and was largely attended. Rev. J. H. Noble conducted the services, and the remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

Painting.—Mr. W. W. Irish, successor to W. O. Butler, whose card appears in another column, is a most excellent workman, and though he has only been here a short time he has already established a good reputation in his business. The following card speaks much in his favor:

We the undersigned hereby certify that W. W. Irish, who has done considerable painting, graining, varnishing, &c., for us, is a first-class workman, and we recommend him to all business men as a prompt, efficient and very competent mechanic in anything in the painters' business.

Respectfully, &c.,

Mr. Petzer is a straight out Republican, and not having followed the teachings of the great Chappaquack he raises good melons.

FAIR PROSPECTS.

The prospects of the Fifteenth Annual Fair of this county, commencing to-morrow, (Tuesday,) and continuing four days, although considerable apprehension of failure have been entertained, are favorable beyond expectation. The weather could not be more propitious, the rain last night greatly ameliorating the condition of the stock, as well as rendering the highways agreeable and the weather delightful.

The grounds have been fitted up so that for convenience of arrangement, and for the accommodation of the patrons in the exhibition of their products, and for the comfort of the general visiting community, they were never better. Entry tickets are being rapidly disposed of, and numerous fine specimens of the various kinds of live stock, agricultural, floricultural and horticultural products, machinery, etc., have been entered, and are now on the grounds. The secretary is now devoting his time exclusively to the recording of entries, and from him we learn that there will be a finer display of live stock, a grander exhibition of mechanical ingenuity, and a better and more complete representation of all the various branches of industry than Macon county has ever given before.

The weather to day is rather lowering, and prospects for rain are good, which is highly favorable to the stock, and will rid the grounds of dust, only tending to make everything more pleasant.

A large attendance is looked for. Great preparations have been made, and no effort spared to make the Fair this year a decided success.

Another Soldier Gone.—Hugh Hartley, father of our town-man, John W. Hartley, died Sunday night, Sept. 8th, 1872. Mr. Hartley was a resident of Jefferson county, since 1810, and served in the Indian war of 1812; he lived and died a Jackson Democrat. His age was 67. His father lived to be 96 years of age, and his father was one of those who came over in the Mayflower.

Mounted Tanners.—A meeting will be held at the Tanner headquarters, No. 1 Merchant street, on Monday evening, Sept. 9th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a mounted company. A general attendance is desired. [Sep 6-3t

IMPOSING DISPLAY!

First Tanner Parade!

Last Saturday evening the several Tanner companies whose organization had been perfected paraded for the first time. The force consisted of Capt. McClellan's company, the Rolling Mill company, under command of Captain Ira Harris, the Juvenile Tanners, under command of Capt. Park Hammer, and the colored company, under command of Lieut Robinson Each company had its own drum corps, and all were in full uniform. After parading the principal streets, the battalion drew up in front of the REPUBLICAN office, where a flag was presented to the Juvenile company by Messrs. Abel & Locke. The presentation speech was made by Master John Bunn, and was responded to on behalf of the company by Capt Park Hammer. The line was again formed, and after another siege of marching the force was massed in front of Litsinberger & Sutton's store, where Mr. L. F. Muzzy addressed the tanners in a short but exceedingly happy speech, at the close of which Col. W. H Harris was unanimously elected Colonel of the regiment, and Mr. D. Samuel president of the organization.—The several companies then gave three cheers for Grant, Wilson and Oglesby, and marched away to their respective quarters.

Notwithstanding the threatening appearance of the clouds, and the prospect of a storm, the streets were crowded with people,—men, women and children, lining the sidewalks in all directions. Considering the fact that but little notice had been given of the proposed parade, and no particular effort made to draw out a crowd, the display was in all respects creditable, and republicans went home feeling renewed faith in the triumph of a cause which the people so heartily endorse by every manifestation of approval.

The Citizens' Meeting at the court house on Saturday evening was not very largely attended, the notice having been rather too short to call out much of a crowd. H. B. Durfee, Esq, presided, and upon his suggestion Mr. K. H. Roby stated the object of the meeting to be to take into consideration the proposition of the Paris & Decatur Railroad Company to locate their shops at this place. Mr. Hervey, on behalf of the Company, made a statement of the affairs of the company, to the effect that the road is now completed and in operation from Paris to a point ten miles east of Decatur; that proposals have been received to divert the line from the direction originally intended and carry it to Springfield, but that an agreement had been made with the Ill. Central Railroad Company by which the P. & D. road could be brought into this place by making an intersection with the track of the former south of the river, thereby saving a large amount in grading and bridging. After remarks by other citizens the resolution which had been adopted at the informal meeting on Saturday, and which was published in our issue of that day, was re-adopted, and a committee consisting of James Millikin, J. J Peddecord, John Ullrich, W. H. Ennis and Dr. S. McBride appointed to confer with the representatives of the Company, for the purpose of ascertaining the capacity of the proposed shops, etc. The meeting then adjourned.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Joseph Jasper Hodge, one of our oldest citizens, died suddenly at his residence on West Wood street, last Saturday night. Mr. Hodge was born in 1822, in Orange county, North Carolina, and while an infant removed with his parents to Kentucky. In 1829 he came with his mother to this State, and in 1831 they settled near the head of Long Creek, in this county. He was married in 845, and resided in Decatur for 17 years past. He was a good citizen, an upright man and a kind neighbor. He was in his usual health until a week or two ago, since which time he had several attacks of ague. On Saturday he took something like a congestive chill, and died in a few hours. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this forenoon, and was largely attended. Rev. J. H. Noble conducted the services, and the remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

Painting.—Mr. W. W. Irish, successor to W. O. Butler, whose card appears in another column, is a most excellent workman, and though he has only been here a short time he has already established a good reputation in his business. The following card speaks much in his favor:

We the undersigned hereby certify that W. W. Irish, who has done considerable painting, graining, varnishing, &c., for us, is a first-class workman, and we recommend him to all business men as a prompt, efficient and very competent mechanic in anything in the painters' business.

Respectfully, &c.,

Hair Vigor

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit, but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

REASONS

For Purchasing a

FIRST:

THE STEINWAY PIANOS have been awarded the

For American Pianos, by the UNANIMOUS VERDICT of the International Jury, and placed at the head of all others—the United States not being represented among the jurors.

SECOND:

All their "scales," peculiarities of construction, and various improvements, have been copied by nearly all the American piano manufacturers, and also by a large number of celebrated European makers. As an incontrovertible proof of the great superiority of the New Over-Strung Piano System introduced by Steinway & Sons, the fact may be stated that, at the Paris Exposition, out of eleven exhibitors of Pianos constructed after the Steinway System, two received Gold Medals, (the first and third prizes), and eight received silver medals, while, of over three hundred pianos exhibited on the old plan of construction, with straight strings, only three received gold medals, and twenty-two silver medals—a proportion of

Its columns contain the finest collections of reading-matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveller.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading-matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining and unexceptionable.—N. Y. Sun.

"Unquestionably the Best Sustained Work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press:

There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. Harper's is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unequaled by any other American publication. * * * The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopedia we can place in our libraries. Harper's Magazine is a record of travel everywhere since the hour of its establishment. Livingstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa, Strain among the Andes and Ross Browne in the East, Speke on the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan—indeed all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography. Our artists see the best evidences of their genius and the most enduring specimens of their work in the Magazine.—N. Y. Standard.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit, but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

REASONS

For Purchasing a

Steinway Piano!

FIRST:

THE STEINWAY PIANOS have been awarded the

First Premium

Everywhere, by the most competent and inflexible judges the world can produce, many of whom were previously prejudiced in favor of other instruments, their crowning triumph having been achieved at the Universal Exposition in Paris, where Steinway & Sons were awarded

The First Gold Medal!

For American Pianos, by the UNANIMOUS VERDICT of the International Jury, and placed at the head of all others—the United States not being represented among the jurors.

SECOND:

All their "scales," peculiarities of construction, and various improvements, have been copied by nearly all the American piano manufacturers, and also by a large number of celebrated European makers. As an incontrovertible proof of the great superiority of the New Over-Strung Piano System introduced by Steinway & Sons, the fact may be stated that, at the Paris Exposition, out of eleven exhibitors of Pianos constructed after the Steinway System, two received Gold Medals, (the first and third prizes), and eight received silver medals, while, of over three hundred pianos exhibited on the old plan of construction, with straight strings, only three received gold medals, and twenty-two silver medals—a proportion of

Harper's Weekly.

Its columns contain the finest collections of reading-matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveller.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone.—Its reading-matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining and unexceptionable.—N. Y. Sun.

"Unquestionably the Best Sustained Work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press:

There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. Harper's is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unequaled by any other American publication. * * * The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopedia we can place in our libraries. Harper's Magazine is a record of travel everywhere since the hour of its establishment. Livingstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa, Strain among the Andes and Ross Browne in the East, Speke on the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan—indeed all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography. Our artists see the best evidences of their genius and the most enduring specimens of their work in the Magazine.—N. Y. Standard.
